BOOK WEEK

A VERY CRANKY BEAR that had been hibernating in the Library awoke last week to find himself in the middle of the annual Coonabarabran Public School Book Fair. The Cranky Bear must have put a call out to some mates (and to Mr Adam, who obviously knew he was there and didn't tell Mrs McKernan) to come and join him for a party at school and gave Mrs McKernan quite a shock when she arrived at her normally very quiet library to find animal paw prints everywhere. There were paw prints of all types on the floor, up the walls and around the school.

Students and parents were intrigued to see where the paw prints led and found themselves immersed in a world of new and exciting books and stationery to purchase. Mrs McKernan was delighted to see hundreds of children and their parents at the fair having a Pawesome time.

Mrs McKernan would like to thank all the parent helpers and teachers that helped make this year's fair a huge success. The students will benefit greatly borrowing and reading all the new books that the fair provides the school.

The Cranky Bear was last seen heading to a classroom for a visit and didn't return. I wonder where he is hiding?

2M have had a wonderful week reading the book, Cluey Louie, Where's Freddy. We enjoyed learning about sharing new ideas with each other and that a Dangle Pet could be good to have instead of a real pet. As a class we were very respectful during the Sorry Day assembly and hope that our Hands show our Respect.

SRC COMPETITION

The SRC are trying to create a plastic free school by encouraging staff and students to be plastic free every Wednesday. Their motto is Refuse, Not Re-Used. Students are encouraged to use plastic containers instead of plastic wrapping as containers are able to be washed and re-used instead of adding to the plastic going into landfill.

In order to promote this, the SRC are holding a competition for the whole school to participate in. The competition is for students to design a poster using the motto-Refuse, Not Re-Used! and adding pictures to help promote this motto. Students can make their poster as colourful or creative as they like as the only compulsory part is the motto. These posters are due to Mrs Imrie by Friday 1st June. Make sure you have your name and class on your entry (on the back). There will be prizes for the winners from each year group and the posters will be displayed around the school. Remember- Refuse, Not Re-Used!
